OGDEN.—Since this is pronounced to be junction of the Central and the Union cific Railroads, things have become lively that point. The Salt Lake Telegraph ys

"Rents at Ogden are indicative of vigor in ade, that is, there must needs be some traf- in a mercantile way to generate, from fair es, at 'small advances on cost,' sufficient defray current expenses. In some transac- ons, not even this was aimed at, holders be- g eager to sell at one cent per pound less an cost to avoid the more uncomfortable di- mma of yet lower figures, a consequence the advent of the iron rail. Nothing ca- able of being metamorphosed into a range counter and shelves, could be 'struck' less than from $100 to 150 per month. The business rage does not as yet wholly reclude consideration of other topics. mong the subjects most prominent, that of heep-raising begins to elicit much attention. he project of driving large herds upon suit- ble ranges on the northern slopes during ummer and taking them over the southern m of the Basin to Winter, meets with gener- l approval. At a late meeting a committee as appointed to report details for inaugurat- g such a movement."

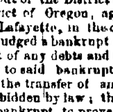
HIRAM SMITH'S



Ophthalmic Panacea!
IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.
It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.
It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE,	NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WADDLE,	G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN H. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROBT RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity.
Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
Weekly Oregonian.
FOR 1869.
Nineteenth Volume!
Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.
An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great
Agricultural, Manufacturing,
AND MINING INTERESTS,
And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.
Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of
NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF
Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana
TELEGRAMS FROM THE EAST AND EUROPE
are published as full as in the California Journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.
Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.
Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.
EXTENDED AND RELIABLE
Commercial Reports
are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.
In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.
Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.
All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.
☞ REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.
We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction

SHORT ITEMS.—A young man was thrown from a horse and severely injured at East Portland on last Tuesday. The animal was so vicious that no one could ride it, but after a few manipulations upon it by Mr McIntyre in instructing a class he had formed, said horse became perfectly docile, and was ridden since without difficulty.

We are informed that two cases were tried at the late session of the Circuit Court for Columbia county, Judge Upton presiding; it was held that the owner of cattle pasturing on unenclosed land was responsible to the owner of the land for damages caused to the land by such pasturing. This is very nearly the old common law rule, and Judge Upton has decided it applicable to Oregon. Hence persons will be compelled, should the Supreme Court affirm the decision, to either keep their stock in enclosures or pay for pasturing them on the unenclosed lands of their neighbors.

J. G. Dartwright, U. S. District Attorney for Oregon has removed to this city to reside permanently.

The United States District Court for Oregon, Judge Deady presiding, will convene in this city next Monday.

The commencement exercises of the Pacific University at Forest Grove will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

The County Court for Multnomah county will sit in this city on Monday next. County Commissioners will meet on Wednesday.

About twenty five head of milch cows and calves, several head of horses, and two families with their household goods, left on the Ocean yesterday morning for Puget Sound.

It is said that Ben. Holladay has located the terminus of the railroad on the Sound at a point about halfway between Olympia and Seattle.

Wagons from the country are now bringing nice vegetables of the earlier varieties to this market. They bear a good price, but consumers may console themselves that present rates will not last long.

Judge Pratt Green, the ablest lawyer in Washington Ter., will make the canvass on behalf of the Republicans. Col. Reed of this city, will take the stump for the Democracy. The Col. is better than Ben Wade, but he will be a "carpet-bagger."

Straw and straw hats were in demand yesterday. The sun shone brightly—warmly—fiercely. Pedestrians sought the shady side of the street, and the mercury in the thermometer crept up among the nineties. When we met our friend, and looking at his flushed, red face, remembered that this was only April, and the light of what we might see in July and August, we felt like asking him, "If you have run with the footmen and they have wearied you, how will thou contend with horses?" If we will need Alaska before autumn.

[illegible].—We were shown yesterday, by [illegible], who is stopping in this city, a [illegible] called "Thurber's Patent Mail[illegible]" which we can give a rather poor idea of what it is. We assure the public that it is certainly a useful [illegible] to the following class of persons: The blind or partially blind, those who have to write with ease, or those whose hands cramp in writing or who wish to write without bending over the paper, those who wish to write a fair round, and legible hand, or to write on board of cars or [illegible]. To such it would almost be invaluable. The mode of using it leaves the arm perfectly free and unconfined. The writing is effected wholly by the motion of the arm, communicated to the pen by a system of joints and levers. The writer traces imaginary letters on a table, and the one-fifth the size of those traced are formed on the paper. Any one who has had occasion to [illegible] with Judge Thornton, will have some idea of the [illegible] ful qualities of this instrument, when we inform them that by using it, he writes a very fair and legible hand. No one who has ever seen his penmanship [illegible], would recognise it now. He purchased the [illegible] in New York on his late visit east, and has it on the Hattie C Besse. The original cost was $500, but Judge T. informs us that he would not be deprived of its use for three times [illegible].

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The following is the list of passengers by the Ocean, which sailed for San Francisco at 5 o'clock: I F Haecker, Mrs [illegible] and wife, Mrs Ella Thompson and child, Bishop Hills, Mrs Hills, Mrs F [illegible], Mrs Grey, Wm H Gawley, I Tusten, wife and child, Mrs Smith and 3 children, Mrs Coulson and [illegible], E Boeckel, Col M R Eddy, wife and [illegible], Miss Hete O'Neil, C W Pope, wife and child, [illegible], Frank Marcus, J Sunderland, Wm [illegible] Fisher and wife, John French, John Bow[illegible], Wm P [illegible], M W Wilbers, A Henry, C W Bashaw, C F [illegible], wife and child, W W Shildow, wife and child, [illegible], C W Haynes, S P Mooey, I C Hughes, J B [illegible], wife and child, Rev P R Burnett, wife and [illegible] child, and wife, John Farrell, Mrs O Fardell, [illegible], I Gaffney, N C Webster, Rev O P [illegible], Chas Wheatleigh, J H Snyder, Mr Porter, [illegible], Benj F Kerr, J H Bower, G W Spear, (W[illegible]) and 12 in steerage.

[illegible].—Mr. McIntyre, according to a previous announcement, appeared on the street yesterday, on a high spirited horse without bit or rein. The horse was a fine white animal, of fine form and good mettle, and showed the motions of his master with the utmost [illegible]. After driving the animal up and down the street in any direction, and checking him at will, Mr M announced his intention of forming a class, and is ready to instruct in the art of horse training at $100 per scholar—ministers and members of the press free. We did not have time to accept of his offer, although he stated that the whole system could be learned in one hour and a half. From the statements of those who have taken lessons in the plan taught by Mr. [illegible], and from the numerous certificates of [illegible] we have no doubt the art as taught by Mr. McIntyre will be highly beneficial to all persons who [illegible] driving of horses.

[illegible].—The Commercial says: This is the name of the new bark recently built and launched, and [illegible] at Port Madison. The following is her [illegible], capacity, etc.: Length of keel, 163 feet; [illegible], 178 feet; depth of hold, 14 feet; beam, [illegible] feet; tonnage, carpenter's measurement, [illegible] will carry 750,000 feet of lumber; wire rigging throughout and double top-gallant yards. When [illegible] she is designed for the lumber trade, and will [illegible] ports—principally Port Madison and [illegible]. She is a fine modeled craft, and will be a [illegible] sailer.

[illegible].—From the Unionist of yesterday, we learn that [illegible], who killed Sims in Albany, on Saturday last, had a [illegible] on Monday last, and was discharged. [illegible] workmen on Patton's cellar sunk down [illegible] to be, and then commenced loosening [illegible] under at the bottom and caving [illegible] like the manner of miners when they are [illegible]. Yesterday, while Mr. Varcon and [illegible] were [illegible] under a cave seven feet high, it suddenly [illegible] and caught Mr. M. on the legs, doing [illegible].

[illegible] want of room precludes us from noticing [illegible] at length the rendition of this great play at [illegible] benefit last night. Suffice it to say that [illegible] character, Hamlet, Ophelia, the King and [illegible] Polonius—were well sustained. Mr. [illegible] gave some of parts of the play, which he [illegible] with much effect. This was especially so [illegible] to the Ghost in the second act, and at the [illegible] in the fifth. Mrs Bates, as she always [illegible] her part very well indeed. A good bill is announced—"The Willow Copse."

[illegible].—The telegraph of yesterday said: [illegible]ray, Chinatown, Montana, was almost [illegible]ed by fire on the 27th. Ninety-five buildings were burned, and the greater portion of the [illegible] ruined. The city of Helena is doubtlessly [illegible] are informed that private dispatches to that [illegible] received in this city yesterday.

[illegible].—The Ball by the Emmet Guard to-night [illegible] Mullity be an elegant and enjoyable affair. [illegible] engagement of this splendid company it [illegible] wise, and none who attend will fail to [illegible] hour.

[illegible], a colored man, who was formerly employed on the Hattie C. Besse, died in this city yesterday. [illegible] was brought on by hardship and exposure, and proved to be a complication of consumption and [illegible].

[illegible].—The steamer Wenat will be sold by Sheriff [illegible]sing at auction, to satisfy divers liens, [illegible], against her. A good chance [illegible] who wishes to engage in steamboating.

[illegible].—Mr. Chas Wheatleigh, who had just closed a [illegible] engagement at Oro Fino Theater, left on the [illegible] for San Francisco, yesterday. We wish him well.

J. H. Underwood, Postal Agent for Oregon, and the [illegible] of Washington and Idaho, will keep his office at Boise City, in this State, until further notice.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19, 1869.

[illegible] & Co., General Agents Manhattan Life Ins. Co.—

GENTLEMEN: It is with regret that we learn that a report has been circulated in Portland, Oregon, that your Co. [illegible] had refused, or would not recognize the claim of Mrs. Hannah Meier, widow of Julius A. Meier, deceased, on the ground that deceased had been murdered. We are at a loss to understand how such a report originated, as you had assured us from the day of his death, that his claim would be promptly paid as soon as the necessary proofs of his death were furnished.

We now hate to thank you, and also Mr. C. L. Ferry, your agent at Portland—not only for your assistance in arranging the requisite proofs—but for the prompt payment of the TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, the amount of said policy, which affords the most substantial proof of the utter falsity of the report alluded to.

Yours very truly, for Mrs Hannah Meier and her brother-in-law,

M. MORGENTHAU

MR. M. REESE, the millionaire of San Francisco, visited and patronized THE OREGON DISPENSARY on his first arrival in this city, because he heard that it was the cheapest and most elegant Drug Store on the coast. We also are informed that the latest articles and medicines to the [illegible] of Mr. Holliday for the excursion, trip to Victoria and Puget Sound, which is a further evidence of our increased popularity. Everybody now procures all articles in our line at THE DISPENSARY because our medicines and goods are fresh, pure and cheap.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1869.

The City Printing

The proceedings in the City Council, Wednesday evening, furnish another specimen of the peculiar style of rentrenchment practiced by the Democratic majority of that body. An ordinance was passed by the votes of Councilmen Hallock, Cree, Porter, Norris and Rigsby, against four Republicans, directing the Committee on Ways and Means to contract with the Daily Herald to do the city printing for the ensuing year, at the same prices as paid the last year. This is no more nor less than we anticipated would be done, knowing as we did the kind of men who had the job in hand. We knew that in the disposition of this patronage the Council would not only stultify its own proceedings of two weeks before, and the professions of the Democratic members by which they fooled the voters into electing them, but would disregard all ideas of justice, fair-dealing, economy and retrenchment, in order to feed a partisan Democratic press at the public crib.

At the evening of the Council, Wednesday the 14th inst., Mr. Lewis, a Republican, offered a resolution directing the auditor to notify the daily newspapers that a contract to do the city printing was to be let, and to request them to submit bids for doing such work, before the next meeting. There were three present, Councilmen Besser, Hopkins, Lewis, Cree, Norris and Porter, the first three Republicans and the latter three Democrats. The resolution was adopted without opposition. The Commercial says it was adopted by an unanimous vote. Our reporter says nobody voted against it, though he thinks it possible that Mr. Norris did not vote at all. At all events it required five votes to adopt the resolution, and that number could not have been obtained without counting two Democrats. In pursuance of his instructions, the Auditor notified the daily papers, and the OREGONIAN and the Commercial presented bids.

At the next meeting of the Council, that evil genius, Hallock, was present. Following his own precedent of last year, he set about giving the contract to the Herald without regard to either economy or fair dealing. He introduced an ordinance authorizing the Committee on Ways and Means to contract with the "Herald" to do the printing at the following rates: First insertion, $1 per square, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion, and $2 50 per square for ten days—plain work. Figure work, $1 50 per square first insertion, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion not to exceed five; for ten days, $3 per square whole time. This ordinance passed its first and second reading and went over, under the rules, to the next meeting—last Wednesday. No notice was taken of the Auditor's announcement that bids had been received from the OREGONIAN and the Commercial. We believe we are correct in saying that, through collusion between Hallock and the Herald, that paper only did bid. We were just as well satisfied then as now that "blank" meant Herald and that Hallock would bring his Democratic colleagues into voting the contract to that paper at rates more than double those contained in the bids of the other papers. The OREGONIAN offered to do the work for the following prices, plain and figure work, alike: first insertion, 50 cents per square; each additional insertion, not exceeding five, 12½ cents per square; for ten insertions, $1 50 per square. The Commercial's bid was: first insertion, 45 cents; each subsequent insertion, not to exceed five, 12½ cents per square, and for ten days, $1 20—plain work. Figure work, 70 cents per square first insertion, and 12½ cents for each subsequent insertion not to exceed five, and ten days, $1 45 per square, whole time.

Under Hallock's manipulation, however, the Council did not have the decent regard to business propriety to open the bids, or even to look at them in any way, their receipt; but proceeded at the last meeting to give the contract to the Herald at the rates above mentioned. The rates are the same as paid the Herald the last year. By those rates, that paper has drawn out of the treasury, for one year, over one thousand dollars, charged on the books to a special fund; and if we are correctly informed, a considerable additional sum from private parties whose advertisements do not appear upon the account books. We do not believe that the accountant of the Herald concern will go before a court and swear that the Herald has not received for its last year's public printing more than $1,200. But be the sum one thousand or twelve hundred dollars, the acceptance of the OREGONIAN's bid would have saved the tax payers fifty per cent. of the printing expenses; and the Commercial's bid was even more favorable to tax-payers. There was no excuse for the Council's waste of the tax-payers' money, such as that the other papers are less responsible than the Herald. The plain reason for the transaction was that a partisan Democratic newspaper must be bolstered up and kept on its sickly legs, though the tax-payers should sweat blood for it. It was a barefaced, shameless exhibition of Democratic retrenchment, which consists in robbery of the people to pamper and fatten political favorites. By the action of the Democratic majority the other night, the city will be robbed of between five and six hundred dollars, which might have been saved had Mr. Lewis' proposition been carried out—and all for no earthly reason better than that the Herald must have pap or starve. Mr. Hallock obtained his seat in the Council upon pledges to economise, to retrench, to reform alleged abuses. The other Democratic members got theirs in the same way. This is the way they redeem their pledges. It is the way Democratic pledges are usually redeemed.

Hallock fortifies himself in this wrong by a pretence—how sincere, those who know his political record well understand—that he is not willing to compromise the dignity of the city by cheapening the services of anybody; or by paying for a thing less than it is worth. He asks, if we let out the printing to the lowest why not let out the office of Auditor in the same way? We will answer this by asking another question: If it compromises the dignity of the city to let out printing to the lowest responsible bidder, why is not the city's dignity compromised by letting out street work in the same way? Another question: If you are so particular about paying fully all that a piece of work is worth, why not say by ordinance that A. B., a Democrat, shall have the contract for grading and paving a specified street at a specified price, one hundred per cent above the responsible offer of C. D., a Republican, or the offer of E. F., who is not a favorite Democrat.

We shall take occasion here to notice a statement made in the Herald of yesterday a statement which has been made before, but always falsely. The Herald says: "The fact is the City Council three years ago paid the OREGONIAN nearly double the price now paid by the Herald for the city printing." This is not true. Three years ago when the OREGONIAN had the contract, it obtained it upon its own proposal to do the work, at exactly the same rates as paid the Herald the last two years. The OREGONIAN never had any contract with the city except during that year. Prior to that, it did whatever printing was ordered by the Council at current rates, but very little was ever ordered, and the work scarcely paid for looking after it. During the year when the OREGONIAN did have the contract it received an aggregate sum of about $450 for the entire year's printing, and it never received in any year a larger sum. During that year the Council was under Republican control. The next year the Democrats got control through pledges never to be redeemed, and they gave the printing to the Herald. The printing for that year cost the city about the same sum as for the year just closed, about half of it as useless to the public as the publication of a last year's almanac. The contrast exemplifies Democratic retrenchment (!) as compared with Republican extravagance (!) The tax-payers can now see who it is that fleeces them of their hard earned money, and for what purpose their burdens are made heavy. There is a way to correct the evil—Elect honest men to office who will administer the public affairs for the good of the public, instead of prostituting the city government to partisan robbery.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, April 27.—Wm. Goodwin died a horrible death yesterday from hydrophobia.

A fire to-day burned the house of Charles Newman, of Jamaica, Long Island. Mrs. Newman perished in the flames.

The Union League Club last evening presented a farewell address to John Jay on retiring as President, on the occasion of his anticipated departure for Vienna.

The billiard tournament has commenced with slim attendance. In the first game, Melvin Foster beat Rhines, of Chicago, 89 points in 1,200.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Gregory, Benita and Person, Paraguayans of the Legation at Paris, arrived yesterday. Their object is probably the last effort of Lopez to save himself from an imminent pending crisis.

Daniel Page, one of founders and first Mayor of St. Louis, Mo., died here on Saturday, aged 79 years.

The Board of Registration have decided adversely to the application of women to be registered as voters. Thus far a large preponderance of blacks have registered. The whites are generally indifferent, and the Registers make no distinction between the races.

The National Dress Reform and Woman's Rights Convention will be held on Wednesday.

Col. Parker to-day enters on his duties as Commissioner.

A Tribune's special says Col. Wiswell, who figured so long as applicant for Revenue Commissioner, has gone into bankruptcy; liabilities, four hundred thousand dollars; no assets worth mentioning.

The President has learned of many cases in which he has been imposed upon and pressed to make appointments of unfit persons, and has determined to cause all such appointments to be reviewed and corrected. Probably there will be a number of changes.

CHICAGO, April 25.—The Tribune's New York special says it is rumored that a battle has been fought in the central department of Cuba, resulting in favor of the insurgents.

The Long Island railroad company is severely censured for the bad condition of the roads.

Susan Christie, 82 years old, committed suicide at Fort Wayne last night, by drowning in a cistern. Cause, mental derangement.

HAVANA, April 24.—A Spanish transport has arrived with one thousand soldiers. Nothing further is heard of the reported surrender of six hundred rebels.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—The celebration of the Semi Centennial anniversary of Odd Fellowship to-day, was a grand affair. Over forty Lodges and Encampments were in procession. The streets along the route were densely crowded by spectators. There was an oration in the afternoon, and in the evening a grand banquet at the Southern Hall.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.—The Odd Fellows' procession was very large. The whole city was decorated with flags, etc.

BOSTON, April 25.—Forty-six lodges were in the Odd Fellows' procession to-day. The streets were crowded. Appropriate services were held in the afternoon and a banquet in the evening.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—To-day Senators Sherman and Sumner visited Senator Sprague to suggest a basis of settlement of the difficulty with Abbott. While they were in conversation, Senator Poole entered with a letter from Abbott, reciting language used by Sprague in his speech, in which the story of mastiff and mongrel puppy was used, to illustrate a point and demanded whether Sprague intended to apply the offensive language to him. Sprague wrote a reply, which he placed in the hands of Sumner, who, with Sherman and Poole, went to Abbott with authority to deliver the letter on Abbott's withdrawal of certain language. Sprague's note said the paragraph cited was written before its delivery in the Senate, and before Abbott's participation in the debate, and therefore was not intended to apply to Abbott. This, Abbott replied, was entirely satisfactory; therefore he asked Sprague to consider his allusion to Sprague in the Senate as unsaid. This closed the correspondence.

Secretary Boutwell has ordered that hereafter all property belonging to the Department for sale shall be sold at auction or under sealed proposals. Heretofore it has been the custom to dispose of old furniture, carpets, &c., at private sale.

It is ascertained from authentic sources that only six vessels will be employed in public service in the Cuban waters, the number being necessarily limited by the fact that Congress has made great reduction in the personnel of the Navy; but this number is considered sufficient for all legitimate purposes. No trouble from Spanish authorities being apprehended, the fitting out of several iron-clads has no other significance than a desire of the Navy Department to preserve them from decay, to which vessels out of commission are exposed.

The public debt statement will probably show a decrease of $3,000,000.

No appointments made to-day, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General being absent.

J. O. Green, of New York, has been appointed Chief Clerk in the office of the Solicitors of the Treasury, vice Pleasants, who will be retained as second class clerk.

BOSTON, April 27.—Rev. J. C. Lavenger has been removed from the Custom House and his place given to Chas Mitchell, a member of the 55th Massachusetts regiment, who was in the service of the 1st regiment of colored men and elected to the Legislature.

ST. LOUIS, April 26.—The Republican to-day publishes a San Francisco correspondence of the 16th, ten days from the Pacific.

The earnings of the Kansas Pacific Railroad for the first half of April, are $102,000 exclusive of contractors' freight. The business is growing heavily. Settlers are pouring in in great numbers. Some of the counties along the line of the road have doubled their population during the past year.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 26.—By the fall of a platform at a new building to day, three workmen were thrown a distance of 40 feet. One was killed, and it is thought another will die. A man in the basement was struck by a brick and will probably die.

HAVANA, April 25.—Advices from Nassau are to the 17th. Active military preparations are in progress. Forts are being strengthened and garrisons reinforced.

Possibly, complications may grow out of the recent Spanish outrages on British vessels. A demand has been received from Dulce for the surrender of the Commandatore and the alleged enemies of Spain. The demand was refused by the British Government and referred to London for settlement. The Governor has also instructed light house keepers to prohibit the approach of foreigners.

CHICAGO, April 27.—A special from St. Louis to day reports that the steamer Lee, bound for St. Louis with discharged soldiers, struck a snag thirty-one miles above that place, and while sinking, her boiler exploded, killing and wounding a large number. Fifty are reported missing.

MOBILE, April 26.—The steamer St Elmo, belonging to the Mobile and Montgomery railroad company, exploded her boilers this morning. The stewardess was blown overboard and drowned. Six officers of the boat were seriously wounded. No passengers hurt.

BOSTON, April 26.—A petition is being numerously signed for the appointment of Fred Douglas as Minister to Brazil.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The Semi Centennial anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America was publicly celebrated with a grand banquet and other festivities in most of the principal cities. The principal demonstrations were at St. Louis and Philadelphia, both of which are reported as unusually impressive and grand affairs.

NEW HAVEN, April 25.—Ex Governor Henry Dutton died yesterday, aged 73.

BOSTON, April 24.—Captain Gardner and Henry Brown, of Gloucester, were committed for trial, charged with purposely casting away the schooner Twilight on the high sea. The offense is punishable with death.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The Herald states that it has now just got to light that Secretary Seward, while on a visit to Vermont was in a picture of strong opposition to French intervention in Mexico, and authorized General Butler to furnish their army with such munitions they needed.

Reconstruction in Virginia.

The Herald says that Gen. Lee has been invited to call on President Grant at the White House, in order to confer in reference to the reconstruction of Virginia.

Gen. Lee is now in Baltimore with a delegation of Virginians, who are interested in the Valley Railroad, but intends to visit Washington, when he will be the guest of Montgomery Blair.

Entry of Homestead Lands.

The Secretary of the Interior has decided that an actual change of residence of abandonment of land entered under the homestead act for more than six months, forfeits thereof to the Government.

BUFFALO, April 27.—James Brennan, late Fenian general organizer, leaves to day as agent and correspondent to insure information in regard to the location of lands, etc., for Irish emigrants, in the South and West.

Indiana Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 27.—The Senate to-day by a vote of 33 to 10 passed a resolution to expunge from the journal the resolution of censure against Lieut. Governor Cumback, in regard to his correspondence with Gov. Baker.

LOUISVILLE, April 27.—A negro named John Hadin has brought suit against the city for false imprisonment. He claims $50,000 damages. This will test the constitutionality of the ordinance whereby parties are arrested as suspected felons and committed to the workhouse in default of bail.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Henry McClosky, late editor of the Brooklyn Eagle, died at the Insane Asylum, in Brooklyn, yesterday.

A Libel Suit.

J. Russell Young, managing editor of the New York Tribune, commenced a libel suit against Dana, editor of the Sun, laying his damages at $100,000, for alleged malicious libel in the publication of the Sun's exposé, yesterday.

On the second day of the national billiard match Deery beat Snyder 445 points, Daniels beat Goldthwait 71. Betting in the first game was even, but two to one on Goldthwait.

Gilbert Robertson, a jeweller, was found murdered in his store at Erie, last night, having been robbed of $700.

The "Post" on the "Sun's" Exposé.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The Post has a lengthy article signed by Stockton, editor, who says that certain sums were received from gentlemen who took an interest in the Post, some of which has been repaid and notes given for all others, and legal interest paid. He denies that a dollar has ever been received as subsidy or gift, or any bargain ever made with Cameron, Grow, Brueter, Plumberton or anybody else.

Attorney General Brewster publishes a card denying that he was ever fleeced by Young or the Evening Post.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Russell Young publishes a letter in the Evening Post, denouncing McClintock, who furnished his letters for publication. He says he was, personally, his friend of twenty-five years standing, and had his full confidence. He was his school mate and intimate friend. Young says the friendship was broken by McClintock's misconduct. He was menaced with the publication of these letters and was told that a small sum of money would suppress them. He says this is the culmination of a conspiracy which has long been coming, and there is nothing in these letters which he cannot explain whenever an explanation is proper.

CHICAGO, April 28.—The trial of five policemen indicted for manslaughter, in causing the death of Judge Tyler, is now in progress.

A Convention of delegates from boards of trade of several Western cities, met in this city to-day. The object was to secure cheaper rates of grain transportation to the seaports.

A Journal's special says the crowd of visitors at the White House was so great that the President has ordered that he will receive the public only on Mondays and Thursdays, from 10 to 12 o'clock, A. M.

CINCINNATI, April 28.—Gen. Pope arrived to-day.

Eva Strong, a school teacher at Blanchester, was run over by the cars to-day, and killed.

NEW YORK, April 28.—Wm. Livingston, formerly delivery clerk at Stewart's retail department, was arrested to-day as a defaulter in the sum of $4,500. He implicated Porter Curtis, bookkeeper, who says he can prove his innocence. Both were committed for examination.

BOSTON, April 28.—Walbridge A. Field, for three years past, Assistant U. S. District Attorney in this city, has been appointed to a corresponding position at Washington, by Mr. Hoar.

ALBANY, April 28.—Rufus Nash and C. H. Squires, two of the most expert counterfeiters in the country, escaped from jail last night.

The Democratic caucus has nominated Oswald Ottendorfer, of the Staats Zeitung, as Police Commissioner, and John L. Flagg, of Troy, Regent of University.

CHICAGO, April 28.—A Helena special says, this morning, that Chinatown, in Montana, was nearly destroyed by fire. Ninety-eight business houses and 40 dwellings were burned. Loss, half a million.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Among the items in the supply bill now before the Legislature, is a bill for entertaining the commission of privileges and elections at the Metropolitan Hotel. Of $4,640, about half the sum is charged for the use of four parlors for little more than two months—nearly fifty dollars a day. The balance is chiefly for cigars, brandy, whisky, carriages and opera tickets.

SAVANNAH, April 28.—In the U. S. District Court to day a case came up for trial. The counsel on one side demanded the jury to subscribe to the iron-clad oath, which was read, when every juror left the box. The case fell through for the want of a jury.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 20.—The coal miners of Hyde Park, in this city, to night, voted to join the movement for a general suspension of work by the thirty thousand miners in the coal field.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Herald states that the delay in issuing orders to military commanders in the South for holding elections in States remaining unreconstructed, is caused by want of agreement among the leading men of those States as to when elections shall be held. The conservative element is said to favor the election at once. The radical leaders want it postponed until after the planting season. The President is consulting the leading men of the South on the subject, and as soon as the time is settled on, the orders will be issued.

The inquest on the Long Island railroad slaughter was continued, the President of the road being one of the witnesses. The investigation was adjourned to Tuesday, May 5th.

Ellen Carlock, a young woman, died at Hoboken yesterday. Malpractice is alleged on the part of certain physicians in this city, Louis Winette, who has confessed to having seduced her, was committed without bail, the Judge remarking that it was a clear case of manslaughter.

WATERBURY, Conn., April 29.—The American states that a couple of tourists, just returned from a tour through Virginia and as far south as Selma, Alabama, report the country looking well as far as natural advantages go, but there is a sad lack of industry and enterprise among the inhabitants which might be supplied by an infusion of Northern black energy and industry.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The third day of the billiard tournament was a match between Snyder, of Chicago, and Foster of New York. The former won by 75 points. Largest run, 144.

HAVANA, April 27.—It is rumored that the revolutionary Governor has been captured and executed.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The Herald's special from Havana of the 27th says: The Government has received notice that an expedition has sailed for Cuba under the escort of a steamer. War vessels have been dispatched to intercept it. An exciting rumor says a conflict occurred between a Monitor and Spanish men of war, and that one of the latter was sunk and the other captured. The insurgents have again appeared in the vicinity of Sagua La Grande, and have again destroyed the railroads.

NEW YORK, April 27.—A Tribune's special says Galt made a long speech in the House of Commons yesterday, and supported his motion respecting the Fenian raids, and made an addition to his motion so as to include all correspondence between Canada and the United States during the rebellion. He detected the policy of Canada at great length, and closed by saying the course, it appears, was dictated by a desire to humiliate England, through her dependencies. He did not believe this plan would succeed. England would not for a moment give way, the people of Canada would sustain her to a man.

CHICAGO, April 26.—Minister Hale's resignation having been accepted and Sanburn rejected, the Spanish mission is now vacant, and General Sickles will be specially appointed to fill the vacancy, in accordance with the amended civil tenure law.

A change has been decided on in the Brazil mission, but nobody is selected.

Mr. Sanford will remain at Brussels, unless he resigns, which, it is thought, is likely.

Mr. Bartlett remains Minister to Sweden, though a change will probably be made this summer.

The mission to the Hawaiian Islands, vacated by appointment of Mr. McCook as Governor of Colorado, is filled as in the case of the Spanish mission.

Secretary Fish goes to New York to-day on personal business, and no changes will be made until his return.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Sprague entertained a small dinner party last night, very pleasantly. He presided with his usual stately demeanor.

Abbott declares that he cannot forgive the insult given by Sprague, and refuses to follow the advice of friends to let the matter drop. The affair is divested of its dangerous aspect.

The Globe publishes twelve columns of letters received by Sprague, commending his recent speeches, permission having been granted by the Senator to print them. They comprise one hundred and eighty-two letters, from all parts of the country.

The Tribune says the Cabinet has considered the question of appointing persons whose nominations went over. The general conclusion was to make such appointments, where a failure of the Senate to act did not spring from positive opposition.

The friends of the Sandwich Islands treaty are confident that it would have been ratified had a vote been reached.

All Indian treaties have gone over. The result of the efforts of Thayer, Pomeroy and Harlan was a defeat. The matter was compromised by reporting all except those intended to be defeated in the forenoon, thus giving the idea that all of this class had been acted on at the evening session. The remainder were reported on "Mr Blank, without the designation" of Friends, to show that they were Quakers, while the Senate was coming to order. As the matter now stands, Harlan's brother-in-law retains the Neosho Agency, while Pomeroy and Thayer each keep in their friends.

A Times special says Secretary Borie has intimated his intention to resign on account of ill health. He has performed very little official duty, the Department being fully under the control of Admiral Porter.

CHICAGO, April 25.—The Times special says the President has decided to give the Brazil mission to Missouri, and it has been tendered to Congressman Blow. Should he decline, it will probably be given to Hitchcock, a lawyer at St. Louis.

It is expected Sanford will resign, in which case S. Russell Jones will be again nominated to the Belgium mission.

Official information from New Orleans and other coast cities, shows no intelligence to obtained of any expeditions fitting out for Cuba. Recent reports to the contrary appear to have been fabricated in the interest of the insurgents. There is nothing therefore to require the issuance of a proclamation on the subject.

It is now believed that no personal collision will occur on account of the Abbott Sprague difficulty, but their friends will probably settle the matter to morrow.

It is understood that the difficulty on the eight-hour question will be called up in the next cabinet meeting.

A New York special to the Chicago Times, says that private advices from Washington indicate that a pretty general breakup of the cabinet is likely to occur soon.

CHICAGO, April 25.—The Tribune's Washington special says the President intends to retain Commissioner Capron in the Agricultural Department, who gives great satisfaction. There have been five hundred removals in the Treasury Department, and the beheading machine will commence active operations in the Postoffice and Interior departments early in May.

CHICAGO, April 26.—A Republican special says Secretary Fish has stated that there would be no more foreign appointments, except in case of vacancies, until after June, the close of the fiscal year, the object being to give incumbents time to settle their quarterly accounts. Of course it is understood that there is a vacancy in Spain, Hale's resignation having been accepted.

The English Minister has received no dispatches from his Government since notified of the rejection of the Alabama treaty, and much speculation is indulged in as to how the English Government regards this action. Little confidence has been placed in the comments of the English press. A gentleman who has an opportunity of knowing the views of the Minister, Thornton, says further negotiations must be opened by the United States.

It is stated positively that the Sprague-Abbott imbroglio will be brought to a close to day.

Senator Wilson's letter in regard to the eight-hour law, was laid before the Cabinet meeting. He hoped the Attorney General would be induced to revise his opinions. Mr. Wilson quotes from speeches of Senators while the law was under consideration, to show that Congress intended to give full pay for eight hours' labor.

General Butler appeared before the Admiralty Court, to-day, to claim prize money for Admiral Farragut and his men for the capture of New Orleans.

A Times' special says the President's decision to appoint Sickles Minister to Spain has aroused strong opposition, both among the friends of Minister Hale, and Sanford, the rejected appointee. Senators say Sanford was rejected to allow Hale to remain and vindicate himself from charges of corruption.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—The brig Fire fly, from Tahiti, last night brought Cornelius Nye, Joseph Franklin and John R. Nye, charged with the murder of Chas. Longfellow, seaman on the whaling bark Seine, of New Bedford, at Tahiti, on the 28th of January. Franklin and Reeves are retained as witnesses. The prisoners were delivered into the custody of the U. S. Marshal.

David Petty, employee at Hudson's spice mills, had all the fingers of one hand torn off yesterday by becoming entangled in the machinery.

Chas. Richards, a native of Roxbury, Mass., was found dead at the corner of Valencia and Fourteenth streets yesterday afternoon.

An incendiary fire occurred last night in a frame building on Ninth street. This was the second attempt to destroy the building.

In the Fourth District Court to-day, in the case of Pierre Frontier vs. Mary Robinson, counsel for defendant introduced a colored man on the witness stand. Plaintiff's counsel objected to testimony being taken on the grounds of the witness being a negro. The court overruled the objection. The rule is probably settled now that negro testimony is admissable in the courts of this State.

The prosecution of Julius Levy by Michael Castle, for obtaining money under false pretences, has been compromised and the case dismissed.

R. S. Thurston has sued Levy to recover $1,500 damages, growing out of the same transaction—the selling of land to Castle for $8,500 while acting as broker, and paying his principal $7,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—A preliminary meeting of parties interested in celebrating the completion of Central Pacific Railroad was held last evening, at Mechanics' Institute. About 25 organizations were represented, and a committee of 200 were appointed to complete the management of the celebration.

Deputy Sheriff Brown, while attempting to arrest some parties for making a disturbance on the corner of Third and Howard street at 3 o'clock this A. M., was himself arrested and disarmed by four policemen, who started him off toward the Station House, but finally allowed him to go free and restored his pistol. The affair appears mysterious, and will be investigated by the Police Commissioners.

A drunken negro was ejected from a car on the North Beach and Mission Railroad last night for obscene language. While the conductor was forcing him from the car, the negro struck him in the face. The negro was fined $50 in the police court to-day.

Leon Beauswanger was arrested last night, charged with grand larceny in robbing the Mercantile library cabinets of gold and silver specimens. The police recovered $150 worth.

Thomas Gorham and wife have sued Thomas Smith and wife to recover $15,000 for slander.

The Republican State Central Committee met to day preparatory to opening the approaching campaign.

The Moses sails for Panama to morrow.

Mining stocks continue firm.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

NEW YORK, April 24.—A dispatch from London says the British and French Governments propose to send a squadron to the Gulf of Mexico to look after their national interests.

There is much opposition in England to Cuban independence. It is understood that the Spanish loan will be promptly taken to enable Spain to suppress the rebellion and prevent the United States from obtaining control of the island of Cuba.

Victor Hugo intends to visit America the present year, probably in May or June.

MADRID, April 26.—The conscription is completed. There was no riot or disorder except at Avila, a small town, where the conscription was postponed on account of the opposition of the people.

FLORENCE, April 26.—The Mazzinian conspiracy, recently discovered at Milan, seems wider spread than was at first supposed. Arms, ammunition, documents, etc., belonging to the conspirators have been discovered and seized in this city.

MADRID, April 27.—A resolution condemning the conduct of the Patriarch of the Antilles was brought up in the Cortez. Marshal Serrano opposed it, intimating that its adoption will be an implied censure of the Government. The resolution was then withdrawn.

Olozaga, during the session yesterday, assured members that France would recognize the government of Spain, whatever form may be adopted.

MADRID, April 26.—Disturbances were occasioned by enforcing the conscription at Seville, but they were easily suppressed.

LONDON, April 27.—The two thousand guinea stakes at New Market to-day was won by Pretender. Balladum second, and Perrydown third. Nineteen horses run.

PARIS, April 27.—The Corps Legislatif adjourned sine die at the close of its last sitting, with shouts of "Vive L'Empereur" from the Government members and counter cries of "Vive la Liberte" from the opposition.

NEW YORK, April 25.—A London dispatch to the Herald says it is rumored that the Government will adopt a new and bold policy on the Spanish-Cuban question. Belligerent rights will be conceded to the Cuban insurgents and assistance will be rendered so that the independence of the island is assured. This it is argued will prevent annexation to the United States and give a show of consistency to the Alabama claims and belligerent rights question pending with the American Government.

LONDON, April 25.—Dispatches from Madrid report that a great popular demonstration was made there, yesterday, in favor of a Republic. It is rumored that a dispute has arisen between Prime Minister Serrano and Gen. Prim.

LONDON, April 26.—Dispatches from Bombay announce the pacification of Cabool. The Afghan chieftains gave their allegiance to Sheere Ali, present Emir, the son of the deposed Emir of Cabool, has fled the country, and it is believed there will be no further attempt to disturb the reigning prince.

Late advices from Pekin say that Sir Rutherford Alcock, the British Minister, positively contradicts Burlingame's assertion that the Chinese desire progress.

It is reported that the Catholic missionaries, with several hundred converts, have been massacred by the natives.

The Prince of Wales Stakes at Newmarket, today, were won by the Duke of Newcastle's Situma; Tippoo, Second; Lisolis, Third.

The House of Commons in committee resumed the consideration of the bill for the disestablishment of the Irish Church. Jonathan Pim, a Liberal member from Dublin, moved to amend by striking out those sections in which provision is made for the maintenance of certain church buildings as national movements. Gladstone accepted the amendment, which was carried by 281 to 135.

PARIS, April 26.—Negotiations for a commercial conference between France and Belgium are renewed.

BERLIN, April 26.—The Tariff Committee of the Federal Council are about to submit a project imposing a duty on imported petroleum.

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will offer it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his establishment
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

DATES TO APRIL 28.

The New York Tribune

NEW YORK, April 28.—A Tribune special says a change in the editorial management of the New York Tribune will probably be made to-day, upon the return of Greeley and Sinnickson from Washington. Young has gone to Philadelphia. The excitement has caused much excitement in New York and Philadelphia. Many telegrams have been received from that city this evening.

The Post says it will be more necessary than ever for all members of the Press who wish to save it from disgrace to join in denouncing the imposition now exposed, and in keeping the rest of the profession above all kindred suspicion.

CHICAGO, April 28.—The Sun's expose of J. Russell Young, consists mainly in publishing a correspondence between Young and McClintock and Stockton, resident managers of the Philadelphia Post, of which paper Young was one of the proprietors. The first letter is dated January 22, 1866, on Young's appointment as managing editor of the Tribune, announcing that fact to McClintock in terms of self congratulation. In its comments on this, the Sun says: Next followed an inundation of carpet-baggers from Philadelphia, crowding the old staff to the wall, their places being filled by details from this body guard. On January 1st, 1867, the ship was overhauled. Her timbers had been fearfully strained; freights for the trip had exceeded a million dollars; the profits were less than eleven thousands. It was the most unprofitable voyage the ship had ever sailed through. Through Philadelphia influence the murmurs of the discontented were silenced and the Captain retained.

January 10th, he wrote as follows. "Dear Charley—The stockholders had their meeting today. My report was approved by a vote of eighty-two shares to ten. Although I spent $88,000 more than Gay, I made a report which was highly complimented, and had everything my own way and no trouble, and am stronger than ever. Meeting just over." Signed, JOHN.

Meantime he discovered that the stockholders who had thus endorsed him were a set of old fogies. On the 8th of May he wrote to Charley.

"OFFICE TRIBUNE, New York.

Strange how people like to go into such things. Am doing so here. Keeping my own like a rock, notwithstanding a current of opposition from old fogies. I shall whip them all yet, but by means of hard battle, etc." Signed, JOHN.

Soon after this the Philadelphia Star was started and then the Morning Post, which latter proved an expensive craft, and needed considerable bracing up to keep her afloat. A call in the name of the Tribune was made on the Union League of Philadelphia. Young wrote McClintock, October 5, 1867, that he had written to Fell & Decker to pave the way for getting money from the Union League for the Post. He says: "I hope good will come of it if your dispatches are cheerful. Hope they represent more than your enthusiasm. If anything can live by pushing, the Post must live. How are you with Forney? Why don't you send me the Post? Only had the first number. Have it come regularly. Exchange it with the Tribune." Signed, JOHN.

Afterward Young writes Charley that "he is laying a trap for a five thousand dollar loan. He says too much he is in the Post, the more enthusiastic he feels about it. He sees fortune, fame, everything, in its success." After the Post had been started two weeks, Chief Justice Chase, a prominent candidate for the Presidency, was invited to become a reader of it.

NEW YORK, April 22.—John D. Stockton, Philadelphia, please send to Chase, at Washington, files of the Post from the beginning. I have written him to be sure to be in Philadelphia on Friday. I am going to see him.

(Signed) I. R. Y.

How he succeeded with Chase is unknown, but it is reported the crow lived on salmon for some weeks. The real copy of the above dispatch is to be seen in the following, written October 17th.

"TRIBUNE" EDITORIAL ROOMS,
Friday—midnight.

DEAR CHARLEY: I don't say that anybody can win with money. We must win without. I am sure manna will fall when we are hungry. Our stars have stood by us. They never desert a man at 27. McC. was here. I strongly advised against his resignation. I told him to wait until he was kicked out. Nothing like a friend at court. What do you mean by Forney being mollified? What do you mean by Chase men fawning us? On that keep me well informed. I want to work that way for money. I am coming your way on Friday and then go see Chase, for the Post. I am trying to lay pipes for Cameron, Grow and lots of people. Grow wants to be Vice President, and has promised me help already. When I have sold my last boots I am a beggar, I shall say, about the Post—but not till then.

(Signed) JOHN.

The supplies, says the Sun, ran short, and when the Chase movement came out it became necessary to find new friends for the Post. Ex Gov Curtin was a prominent candidate for the Republican nomination for Vice President. An attempt was made to strike him for $5,000, but the Governor did not think the influence of the flag ship in New York and her two tenders in Philadelphia worth the amount. The trenches were dug and the approaches made to the Governor in regular parallels. The seige was strong but unsuccessful. The Sun continues: The affection of Greeley's commodore for the war experienced a sudden change. He wrote letters to the "pure patriot" at Harrisburg, ridiculed the Governor, belittled Grow, believed Kelly, sneered at Gov. Fenton, displayed half a dozen other signal letters, and thus getting Cochill in money lending humor soon found willing purchasers. Cameron was caught in his own trap and beaten at his own game. He bought the Philadelphia Post and its editorial influence on the Tribune for $5,000, and subsequently an additional $5,000 was demanded and paid. This was followed by a final payment, as the books show, of $2,250, making $12,250 in all for the Philadelphia Post and its influence with the New York Tribune.

In November, the 17th, the Tribune's commodore wrote the following letter:

DEAR CHARLEY: I have been all in the dumps these few days about our poor little baby. Such a healthy child if we had more milk. I am afraid this one is making me old. Certainly it tries my sternest duty and life more than ever. I had counted so much on Jay Cooke; not altogether, but vastly. My next move will be on Simon Cameron. I have a promise from Grow to give me $50,000. He wants to be Vice President and is building upon Pennsylvania. He said he would give me this money after my election. Any loan can do great things with money. We have done great things without and must do them again. Our friends should help us more, but perhaps those who help themselves are best helped in the long run. Until after the election I am tied here. Even then it is not wise for me to go away, as I have many Tribune problems to solve this winter. After election I shall address myself to the Post. We have had many hard pullings on in life. This is no harder than a hundred others and we are bound to reach deep water. Announce in the Post that special arrangements will be made to have the New York returns early.

(Signed) JOHN.

On the 22d of November, Young wrote to Charley that he was dead broke, all his money gone, and he desired Stockton to strike Cameron for a couple of thousand. He said he had seen Cameron about the Post, who strongly desires to break down Forney. He concludes by congratulating the Post on getting the "Associated Press" news. Further letters follow in the Sun. It is understood by this time Cameron was tired for $50,000 with which to keep the Post going to April, when the purse was again swept and leeches applied to Cameron and Grow. It says: "The commodore kept two strings to his bow and played fast and loose with Grow and Cameron." The following letter is dated March 10, 1868:

DEAR CHARLEY: The Post looks well. Grow being Chairman of the Republican State Committee is a good thing for us. It will likewise defeat Cameron, it will make him work and make the Post more necessary to him.

Yours, stillin trouble. JOHN.

Another sweep was made on Cameron, April 24th. The Sun says: "The ship kept afloat with $12,000 from Cameron, $30,000 from Grow and $10,000 which it positively asserted Young received from Attorney General Brewster, of Penn. Then followed a correspondence with Simonton, in regard to a leak in the cable dispatches. Simonton reset the trap. He sent a cable dispatch [illegible] the 7 o'clock dated a day behind the dispatch sent to the Herald and Times. It appeared the [illegible] with the Tribune date. Simonton then set the 7 o'clock a false one announcing the escape of Gardner from Richmond. He corrected it after the line to Philadelphia had closed. The dispatch did not appear in the Tribune but did in the Post.

November 3rd, Young writes Simonton as follows. "On twelve and a-half the paper you show me, I am far from thinking that the news goes from the Tribune. I have closely examined all the men who have either directly or indirectly come in contact with the manifold news and am convinced that they are in Cooper's of the Post, or any other arrangement of the Post of the day before."

The following message is from the Tribune office:

NEW YORK, Nov. 4, 1868.

To CHARLES MCCLINTOCK & Morning Post, Philadelphia:

Mr. Stockton should come over to New York to-morrow on your Associated Press business.

(Signed) JOHN HOGE.

D. H. Stockton left immediately. He arrived in the evening and immediately went to the Tribune. In November he sent to Philadelphia the following:

"3 30 A. M.—Dear Charles—Have weathered the gale. I think Clements was all right. I have written him to send while Ames is sick. Don't think it necessary for me to go on. Clements is in the affair. I think it may be Ames had told him all about it. JOHN."

In a letter to Simonton, the Sun says, was the following from Greeley's commodore to the Post, written before Simonton's first letter, but it will prove highly interesting:

NEW YORK, —9—Dear Boys: Have just sent condensation column, cable and all else. Did not send election details. Supposed you would have them from the Press. Hope I did not err in this, as I might have given you a column. The cable was good, and I sent it to make sure, signing Warner's name. Was disappointed not to have Tuesday's Post. Did not say J. G. S., how glad to have him go on so promptly with your dispatch, the more invigorating as they were. I sincerely hope we have not blundered in this business and wait for news with feverish anxiety. Telegraph me constantly and promptly your wants—will put Tribune behind you if I can only know how. I want you to write daily all your suggestions, ideas, hopes and fears.

(Signed) JOHN."

On the 9th of February, 1868, Young writes: "DEAR CHARLES: I am very busy. Things look ripe here for a change, which, I think, will enable you to do greater things in the world than any you have dreamed of. Yours, JOHN."

A few days after this he visited "Dear Charley" in Philadelphia, and said he would not be surprised if, inside of a few months, Charley would be running the Tribune.

A letter is also published from McClintock to a General in Philadelphia, that Young had told him Sinclair was an old fogy, and that inside of six months he (McClintock) would be publishing the New York Tribune.

The Sun finally gives an account of an alleged attempt of Young to get in Grant's Cabinet and of placing all the original letters before Horace Greeley on Friday last. He read them through carefully. He did not rise on his feet in a fit of passion and smack the bust of Lincoln, adorning his sanctum. Neither did he break the chairs, dismember the table, or split the desk. He simply threw himself back in his chair, drew a long breath and said: "This is interesting reading." Three hours after, he left the Tribune office, jamming his white hat on the back of his head, exclaiming, "Well! well! sold again, for the eighty-sixth time!" The Commodore tendered Greeley his resignation when he learned that the underwriters had learned of his management of the craft, but the resignation was not received.

The Sun to-day, contains an editorial announcing a libel suit. It says our reasons for expressing these facts, appear to us very clear and conclusive. He has for some years occupied a leading place in one of the most important and influential journals in the country. That journal owes the position which it holds in the public esteem to the honesty and conscientiousness with which it has been conducted. In selecting Young for this important and responsible position, its proprietors have put themselves in the hands of one who is according to the evidence of his own letters, an unscrupulous intriguer, who has used his great power for improper purposes. He has not broken any statute: has promised nothing more than he has been able to perform. He is not guilty of any offense of which the criminal code takes cognizance. The only method of punishing this wrong doing is to bring it to the bar of public opinion and expose it. This is what we have done, and under similar circumstances we should not fail to do it again.

New York News.

NEW YORK, April 25.—The fire last evening at Nos. 9 and 11 Nassau street, was in a building occupied as an engraving department and drying room by the National Bank Note Co. It did damage to the amount of $20,000 to $50,000. The building was little injured.

Emil Butts, a German, shot and killed John Hughes, an Irishman, in a bar room quarrel on Chatham street, yesterday.

The woods at the head of Tenth avenue, near Washington Heights, are on fire.

The Tribune and Sun offices had a narrow escape from destruction by a fire in a lager beer saloon near by, but which however was extinguished.

The obsequies of Wm. C. Rushmore, Mrs. Pray and other victims of the Long Island Railroad disaster, were celebrated to day at Brooklyn. An immense concourse of people witnessed the ceremonies.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Sun, under a prominent heading, announces that the President has appointed Horace Greeley as one of the Pacific Railroad Commissioners under the resolution of April 12th. Greeley has accepted.

A private letter states that on the 1st inst the schooner Ellen Pennell, of Machias, Maine, was fired at and brought to by a Spanish frigate in British waters, off the Bahamas. Her papers and crew were examined, after which she was allowed to proceed.

The grand billiard tournament for the gold cue commenced at Irving Hall to night. Rudolph Rhines, Snyder, Dion, Deery, Goldthwait and others participated. The prize is a golden cue, valued at $600, and $1,900 cash is added with the entrance money. Four hundred dollars and the entire receipts will be distributed in five prizes. Two games daily will be played.

Edward Pierpont was sworn in as U. S. District Attorney. He immediately had a day fixed for the trial of Fullerton—June 14th—and gave notice that he would push the trial with that of all the prisoners under indictment.

Three of the wounded in the Long Island Railroad disaster can hardly recover from the effects of their injuries.

Horace Greeley has declined the Pacific Railroad commissionership.

Mail Robberies.

Complaints are made of recent robberies of money letters in the post office. The Observer says at least twenty four money letters were lost during the month.

The Cincinnatian lost ninety eight. Other papers lose money in the same proportion.

Odd Fellows Celebrations.

CHICAGO, April 27.—In the Odd Fellows' celebration at Indianapolis, forty lodges were represented, besides a large train bearing the Daughters of Rebekah at the procession which was over a mile long. Robert Dale Owen, delivered the oration. Colfax being prevented from participating in consequence of the illness of his brother.

The day was celebrated at Washington. N. by a grand ball.

At Nobleville the procession was the largest and most imposing of the kind ever witnessed in that city.

The procession at Memphis was large and showy. The address was delivered at the Opera House.

At St. Louis the procession was large and imposing embracing many lodges from outside cities. Addison Maddox delivered the oration at the Shaving Pa., giving a very interesting review of the history and statistics of the order. About 3,700 lodges are in the United States, numbering 300,000 contributing members. The revenue of the order last year approximated two and a half millions. The disbursements for the same time for relieving the sick and needy brothers, burying the dead and education of the orphans, approximated $800,000. The resources of the Order probably amounts to fifty millions. Probably five thousand persons attended the exercises. The reunion banquet at the Southern Hotel in the evening, was a very brilliant affair.

The Independent Odd Fellows celebrated at Peoria. About 25,000 were present from abroad. The demonstration was very imposing.

At Boston the procession numbered 6,000. The services were in Music Hall, and consisted of an original hymn sung by the vast assemblage. The introductory address was delivered by L. F. Warren the oration by Hon. H. G. Goary of Baltimore, poem by P. H. Shillaber. The celebration closed by a concert and levee at Music Hall. The banquet was at Bumstead Hall.

The celebration at Philadelphia was an immense affair. Similar accounts come from all the leading cities and towns throughout the entire country.

A Foolish Rumor Contradicted.

CHICAGO, April 27.—A Republican special denies, by authority, that Secretary Fish and Borie and Attorney General Hoar intend resigning.

The Eight-hour Labor Question.

Senator Wilson has received a large number of telegrams from laborer's unions in different parts of the country commending his letter on the eight-hour question. These denounce in strong terms the opinion of the Attorney General and the order of the Navy Department. It is understood an effort will be made to induce the President to have his order suspended until the next meeting of Congress, but he will probably interpose.

The Cuban Insurrection.

The cause of the Cuban insurgents does not seem to be growing in strength with the Administration. It appears that their only hope of success is in obtaining material aid from this Government, and it is asserted on high authority that unless such aid is rendered, the insurgents will not be able to hold out sixty days. It can be stated, on the authority of the President and Secretary of State, that it is not their intention to interfere beyond the protection of American citizens and property.

The Paraguayan Difficulties.

The sub-committee on foreign affairs has been taking testimony regarding the Paraguayan difficulties, and the connection therewith of Minister Washburne, Porter and Bliss: also the conduct of the naval officers toward Bliss and Masterman on their voyage home. The testimony of Bliss is very damaging to the naval officers. Masterman is in London and his deposition will be taken there. The Committee have decided to visit, in an official capacity, the West India Islands, for the purpose of inquiring into the political and commercial affairs of those Islands in order to inform themselves on subjects likely to come up at the next meeting of Congress.

Mail Agents Discharged.

The special agents of the Postoffice Department, eight in all, in charge of the mails for San Francisco, China, Brazil and the Sandwich Island, have been discharged, and the mails will hereafter be in charge of the pursers of steamers.

The females of this district continue to press their claims for the elective franchise.

Release of Americans from Cuban Prison.

The Times' special dispatches from Havana, show that every person whose American citizenship is established, has been released from prisons

Faith.

In the gloaming, when my darlings,
In their dainty robes of white,
By the mother's knee have murmured,
"Jesus, keep us through the night,"

To their little crib, white-curtained,
Where the upper shadows fall,
Nestled in my arms I take them
Through the long, unlighted hall.

Swift, in rayless silence round us,
Close the deepening shades of night,
"Dark!" my blue-eyed Bertie whispers,
Half in awe and half in fright

"Dark!" the baby brother echoes,
With a hush upon his glee,
Then my Bertie, nestling nearer,
Whispers softly, "Papa see!"

Blessed, blessed faith of childhood,
Father grant this faith to me,
Dark the shadows round me gather,
But I know that thou dost see

Crawford County Plan.

This system of making party nominations is being adopted to a considerable extent in California, and might be found subservient to good ends, if tried in some parts of our own State. The Bulletin, San Francisco, of the 7th, speaking of this plan says:

At the meeting of the Union County Committee, in this city, last evening, resolutions were introduced proposing to have the Crawford County plan of nominating adopted here, as it has been in two or three other counties in California. This plan abolishes nominating Conventions, the people voting for candidates instead of for delegates, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes at a primary election being declared by the County Committee duly nominated for the places which they respectively seek. The resolutions further contemplate holding the primaries and the [illegible] of what is known as Porter's [illegible] law. A member of the Committee proposed still further that [illegible] County Committee be chosen in the [illegible] manner, directly by the people. The [illegible] was laid over for one month. During that time the subject should be carefully considered.

It would be better if partisan nominations for local officers could be dispensed with entirely, and [illegible] be done in ordinary [illegible] with exclusive reference to character and fit[illegible]. We believe it is practicable to restore this method of choosing candidates, and shall omit no effort in this direction; but it is nevertheless desirable that the method of making partisan nominations be improved. Both the Republican and Democratic journals of this city have admitted and lamented the occurrence of great abuses under the old system, and it is a good sign to find one of the party organization taking the first step toward reform.

It is believed by the advocates of the Crawford county plan that it will draw out a full party vote, and that a few schemers and wire pullers cannot so easily elect their candidates as they can delegate a convention. The success of the new plan depends upon the manner of the party turning out and voting independently. They would be more likely to do this at primaries regulated by law, where they would be protected against fraud and intimidation; and the experiment will not be rejected by any well meaning Committee. We see no good reason why Committee should not be chosen in the same manner and at the same time as candidates for office. With Committee composed of respectable and honest citizens the new plan would have a double chance of success.

A French paper thus illustrates the way novels are classified in that country; A lady entering a circulating library asks for a novel: "I don't know how to tell you exactly the kind I want," she says. "O, I think we shall be able to suit you," was the reply. "I mean something lively," explains the intending reader; "the sort of book that would be pretty suitable for the library of a young girl." "Marie," cries the keeper of the book shop to her assistant, "novel for a woman of thirty-five."

It is a pleasant practice of the citizens of Corning, New York, to stone the trains on the Erie Railway as they pass through the town.

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.
It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.
It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness.
E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROB'T RAMSEY,
And others in that vicinity.
Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,
AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF
Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana,

TELEGRAMS FROM THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California Journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

☞ REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction.
